Tutors in the Classroom
Frequently Asked Questions

What is Tutors in the Classroom?

Tutors in the Classroom is a new service offered through the SSOC, where tutors are available to assist you in your classroom and help transition students to the SSOC’s tutoring services.

What will the tutors do in my classroom?

We’re here to help you! The tutors are available to help with the following duties, or any other classroom duties you feel necessary.

1.) Assist students with questions while working on homework in the classroom.
2.) Assist with review sessions or group work.
3.) Assist in proctoring tests.
4.) Assist in classroom logistics.

Will the tutor try to teach my class?

No, the tutors are available for assistance only. They will not teach your class or replace your curriculum. They are there to assist you with your classroom needs.

How do I request a tutor for my classroom?

There are two ways to request a tutor for your classroom.

1.) Online:
   a. Go the SSOC homepage at www.osuokc.edu/ssoc
   b. Click on the “Faculty: Request a Tutor” icon (left-hand side).
   c. Fill out the form, and submit!
2.) Contact SSOC Director DeNara Hill at denarah@osuokc.edu or 405-945-9107.

Do I have to wait until the beginning of the semester to request a tutor?

Not at all! You can request a tutor at any time during the semester for as many or as few days as you need. Some instructors request tutors on a weekly basis for the entire semester, while others make one-time requests.

How long can the tutor stay in my class?

Tutors are available for the duration of time that you request. You can request a tutor for a section of or for the whole duration of your class period!

Can the tutor help my students outside of the classroom?

Absolutely! One of the main goals of Tutors in the Classroom is to transition students from the classroom to our tutoring services. The tutors can tutor your students individually, and can also facilitate group study sessions outside of the classroom.
