Oklahoma's Promise Fact Sheet

Every Oklahoma's Promise eligible student must complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Students selected for verification must submit requested documentation and have verification completed before they are eligible for potential funding. Eligibility for Oklahoma's Promise eligibility is lost for any award year in which the income reported on the FAFSA exceeds $100,000. The five-year period of scholarship eligibility includes periods of ineligibility.

OSU-Oklahoma City *eligible degree-seeking students must:

- Enroll in non-remedial courses (remedial coursework is not fundable; therefore, students should carefully plan their enrollment)
- Have the current year's FAFSA on file at OSU-OKC
- Submit requested documentation for federal aid verification, if selected
- Meet Satisfactory Academic Progress Policy requirements

OSU-Oklahoma City *eligible non-degree seeking students must:

- Enroll in non-remedial courses
- Have the current year's FAFSA on file at OSU-OKC
- Submit the Oklahoma's Promise Eligibility Certification form, completed by your home school, each semester of enrollment
- Meet Satisfactory Academic Progress Policy requirements at their home school

OSU-Oklahoma City will claim funds each semester immediately following the semester add/drop deadline. Students should allow a minimum of two weeks processing time for funds receipt. Detailed information, including scholarship benefits, and conditions is located at <https://www.okhighered.org/okpromise/college-students.shtml>.

*Oklahoma's Promise students graduating high school in 2018 or later may not receive total award payments for more than 129 semester credit hours during their five years of scholarship eligibility, unless their degree program required more hours.
