Student Loans – There are annual loan limits associated with student loan borrowing based on dependency status and year in college. Students must enroll and begin attending at least six credits for student loan consideration. Please refer to the chart to see if you have remaining eligibility for the summer term:

Year in College	Dependent Student	Independent Student
Freshmen	$ 5,500	$ 9,500
Sophomore	$ 6,500	$10,500
Junior/Senior	$ 7,500	$12,500

Determine your remaining loan eligibility by taking the annual award minus the amount borrowed (during fall and spring) to calculate the amount of potential availability for summer. To see how much you borrowed go to: www.nslds.ed.gov. As an example: Pistol Pete is a dependent freshman who borrowed $3000 during the fall and spring semesters. His remaining eligibility is $2500.

$$\begin{array}{r} \underline{$5500.00} \\ \text{annual award} \end{array} \quad - \quad \begin{array}{r} \underline{$3000.00} \\ \text{borrowed} \end{array} \quad = \quad \begin{array}{r} \underline{$2500.00} \\ \text{* eligibility} \end{array}$$
